SERMON NOTES

Get Wisdom #14: The Path Principle

_____, not _____, determines _____.

“At the window of my house I looked down through the lattice. I saw among the simple, I noticed among the young men, a youth who had no sense. He was coming down the street near her corner, walking along in the direction of her house at twilight, as the day was fading, as the dark of night set in.” (Proverbs 7:6-9)

“Then out came a woman to meet him, dressed like a prostitute (though not a prostitute) and with crafty intent. (She is unruly and defiant, her feet never stay at home; now in the street, now in the squares, at every corner she lurks.) She took hold of him and kissed him and with a brazen face she said: ‘Today I fulfilled my vows, and I have food from my fellowship offering at home.’” (Proverbs 7:10-14)

“So I came out to meet you; I looked for you and have found you! I have covered my bed with colored linens from Egypt. I have perfumed my bed with myrrh, aloes and cinnamon. Come, let’s drink deep of love till morning; let’s enjoy ourselves with love! My husband is not at home; he has gone on a long journey. He took his purse filled with money and will not be home till full moon.’ With persuasive words she led him astray; she seduced him with her smooth talk.” (Proverbs 7:15-21)

“All at once he followed her like an ox going to the slaughter, like a deer stepping into a noose till an arrow pierces his liver, like a bird darting into a snare, little knowing it will cost him his life.” (Proverbs 7:22-23)

“...those who walk in wisdom are kept safe.” (Proverbs 28:26)

“Now then, my sons, listen to me; pay attention to what I say. Do not let your heart turn to her ways or stray into her paths.” (Proverbs 7:24-25)

“Many are the victims she has brought down; her slain are a mighty throng.” (Proverbs 7:26)

“Her house is a highway to the grave, leading down to the chambers of death.” (Proverbs 7:27)
