SERMON NOTES

The Sermon on the Mount #2 – Who is Blessed?

Jesus begins the Sermon on the Mount with:

“Let me tell you who is _____.”

“Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted. Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the earth. Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be filled. Blessed are the merciful, for they will be shown mercy. Blessed are the pure in heart, for they will see God. Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God. Blessed are those who are persecuted because of righteousness, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Blessed are you when people insult you, persecute you and falsely say all kinds of evil against you because of me. Rejoice and be glad, because great is your reward in heaven, for, in the same way, they persecuted the prophets who were before you.” (Matthew 5:3-12)

(Matthew 4:23-24, Psalm 37:11)

The message of the Beatitudes:

Everybody’s _____. Nobody’s _____.

Anything’s _____.
